

Are Your Costs Alarming?

Cost-effective Alarm Monitoring Solution

Tried and Tested.
Real Peace of Mind

Tried and Tested. Real Peace of Mind.

Effective alarm monitoring remains a core security component for every household or property. While many households have conventional alarm monitoring systems in place, the question to ask is what type of alarm monitoring would best suite your property?

While Verifier is thought of as primarily a CCTV monitoring company, we currently provide a variety of alarm monitoring solutions. Our products and services are tailored to fit the individual needs of your property, and the constraints of your budget.

Should you wish to improve upon existing alarm monitoring systems, Verifier's additional video analytic capabilities can be readily integrated into your home or commercial security service.

Verifier aims to provide high-quality, cost-effective alarm monitoring solutions, to give you better peace of mind.
